Jean Farish

Jean founded Jean Farish Needleworks in 1981 and teaches needlepoint, counted cross stitch, and other forms of counted thread. She especially loves all forms of whitework. Jean became a needlework designer because of her love of color, design, and math. She sees the world in a grid of linen and canvas! Her teaching style is methodical and very much step-by-step with a good dose of humor thrown in for good measure. She wants her students to learn in a relaxed atmosphere and to leave the class feeling good about what they are doing. She calls it developing "stitch confidence" and that is important to her, emphasis is on learning, more than on teaching. Jean calls Winston-Salem home as she says, "A beautiful city with a rich history in the rolling hills of North Carolina's Piedmont region." When traveling she looks forward to Camaraderie ... that indescribable connection with kindred spirits that happens when needle workers get together; seeing the sights in so many amazing places; and hours and hours of stitching time! Jean Farish Needleworks

Toni Gerdes holds Level II Teachers' certification from the National Academy of Needlearts (NAN) specializing in canvas embroidery. She loves to use all the varied embroidery stitches on a canvas ground. She currently serves on the Board of NAN as the Director of Education after serving 5 years as Assistant Director of Teachers' Certification. Toni has also served on the Board of Directors for several ANG (American Needlepoint Guild) chapters as Program Chair & President. She is a past President of NETA (National Embroidery Teachers Association). She has received numerous awards for her designs. Toni has taught for NAN, EGA (Embroidery Guild of America), and ANG, as well as guilds & shops. She began teaching nationally in 2010 and she loves the interaction with students and helping them love stitching as much as she does. Toni has been published in Needlepointers, Needlepoint Now, and in Needle Arts as the Artist Across America. She enjoys all types of stitching and especially sharing her knowledge with others. Her classes are a relaxing learning experience. She currently resides with her son, his girlfriend and son, and a wonderful dog in Buena Vista, Colorado, a small town at 8000 feet in the Collegiate Peaks range of the Rocky Mountains. Toni Gerdes Needlearts

Kathy Rees learned to cross stitch at fourteen and has never stopped using a needle. After earning a business degree and working in the corporate world for eight years, she worked in her family's needlework shop for eighteen years. Kathy began designing, publishing, and teaching needlepoint in 2006, specializing in geometrics with an emphasis on color, offering multiple colorways for many of her designs. She closed her shop in 2011 to design and teach full-time. She lives in Pensacola, Florida and in her spare time, enthusiastically enjoys traveling, watching sports, walking on the beach, spending time with family & friends, and being owned by two cats. She is also an avid quilter.

Needle Delights Originals

Terri Bay, a teacher and designer from South Carolina, began teaching Ukrainian Whitework at Nordic Needle's retreat. One class lead to another and now she has taught Ukrainian Whitework, Hardanger, Pulled and Drawn Thread and Blackwork at the EGA National Seminar, ANG Seminar, NAN, Regional Seminars, chapter workshops, and various retreats and other fun events. She was honored to be featured as the Designer Across America in the June 2018 issue of NeedleArts Magazine and will have a design in Needle Pointers in the fall of 2021. Terri is a member of EGA, EAC, ANG, and NETA.
