Stitch Designer Jean Farish

Jean founded Jean Farish Needleworks in 1981 and teaches needlepoint, counted cross stitch, and other forms of counted thread. She especially loves all forms of whitework. Jean became a needlework designer because of her love of color, design, and math. She sees the world in a grid of linen and canvas! Her teaching style is methodical and very much step-by-step with a good dose of humor thrown in for good measure. She wants her students to learn in a relaxed atmosphere and to leave the class feeling good about what they are doing. She calls it developing "stitch confidence" and that is important to her, emphasis is on learning, more than on teaching. Jean calls Winston-Salem home as she says, "A beautiful city with a rich history in the rolling hills of North Carolina's Piedmont region." When traveling she looks forward to Camaraderie ... that indescribable connection with kindred spirits that happens when needle workers get together; seeing the sights in so many amazing places; and hours and hours of stitching time!
