Benjamin Lind, Editor-in Chief of THE BOND BULLETIN

Being a long-time James Bond fan since 1996, Lind strived to contribute to the global fan community and thus launched his own blog 'THE BOND BULLETIN' in 2012. What began as a simple news blog has evolved into an interactive website which is supplemented by social media channels. Following the trend from the written word to visual content, Lind opened his YouTube channel under the same brand name in May 2019 and has since accumulated over 8.000 followers and two million views.

It was a long dream of Lind to make a documentary film about his time as a James Bond fan and the life-changing experience that it was for him. After two years of filming in seven European countries and in over 150 individual locations, the documentary feature 'A BOND FOR LIFE – HOW JAMES BOND CHANGED MY LIFE' premiered in Lind's hometown Brunswick in March 2016. From the beginning, the film had been conceptualized as a charity venture in cooperation with UNICEF. Together with premieres in Spain and Switzerland as well as two festival screenings, the film provided charity funds for the UNICEF aid operation in Syria. There has been no commercial release of the film. Due to his online presence with 'THE BOND BULLETIN' and versatile knowledge of the history of James Bond, Lind has often been requested by media outlets for comment or as host / co-host for events and has supplied events with trailers and video collages. Recently Lind launched his own design studio 'STALEMATE STUDIOS', incorporating webdesign as well as photo- and videography under one roof. The first major film released by the studio will be the feature documentary 'JAMES BOND AT 60' on October 05, 2022.

Chris Distin, Bond Exhibition of Private Collection

A passionate collector of original props from the successful James Bond films, has collected around 600 exhibits from 24 Bond films to date. In collecting circles he is a recognized expert on the subject of 007. With his knowledge he is not only able to provide expert opinions, but also knows how to procure and integrate the props and production items behind the scenes. Through personal contacts with people from the set he was able to gain insights into the world of film-making: how a film is made, from concept drawings to set construction, from the creation of the props to their use in filming. Distin has an ongoing permanent exhibition of original James Bond props in the world renowned German Spy Museum, Leipziger Platz, Berlin since 2016 thru 2024. Over the years Distin has been fortunate to talk to and meet many people who were involved in the James Bond Movies, Actors, Directors, Composers etc etc and this knowledge is the essence to his guided talks through the exhibition and for his presentations. There are many worldwide unique items that can only be seen in this collection and cannot be viewed elsewhere. Highlights of the collection include 2 motorcycles from Skyfall, a large part of the Westminster bridge from Spectre, James Bond's personal pistol from Skyfall, and the original Hang Glider from Live and Let Die that James Bond (Roger Moore) flew onto Kanangas Island. The newest exhibits are from the 2021 movie NO TIME TO DIE. Past major exhibitions, were exhibited at: Babelsberg Film Studios, Berlin, Grand Hotel Pupp, Karlovy Vary (Filming location in Casino Royale), Jewelry Worlds Pforzheim, State Savings Bank, Brunswick, Germany, Sauerland Pyramids / Galileo Park, Germany, City Museum Burgdorf, Germany. Distin has made various TV appearances, radio and press interviews.

Meike Garden as "Lady Bond" a concert seduction -What would the Bond films be without their legendary film music? Experience James Bond movie Music-highlights live and let yourself be taken aback from the first moment into the Bond world. Meike Garden interprets the distinctive title songs from all James Bond films with her own, newly arranged piano playing and her strong, sensual voice. Sometimes Lady Bond, Bond Girl, female counterpart or Miss Money Penny - multi-faceted, like the artist herself, she takes her audience on an exciting and soulful journey through all James Bond films, goose-bumps and a breath-taking concert program. At the age of 10, she had her first vocal performance in front of a wide audience and thereby her great love for music awoke. Since then, every stage is her home. She gained greater recognition by participating in the Eurovision Song Contest in Dublin, with the duo Maxi & Chris Garden in 1988. This was followed by numerous TV appearances, CD releases and awards (including nomination for the Amadeus Award Austria, double prize-winner Rock & Pop Award, Top ten placing Austria). She concluded her music diploma in Musical Arts at the University of Arts Berlin. Since then, she has been traveling throughout Germany and Europe, with her own concert programs, solo on the piano and with full band. Her passion is to experience music and share emotions with her audience. For her, music is - in addition to a smile - the most direct connection to the heart of people. She has started touring with my heart project "LadyBond."

Brigitte Millar is a multiple award-winning actress, best known for her roles in Harry Potter (2006), 007 James Bond/Spectre (2015) and No Time To Die (2021). Brigitte is an award-winning London based, bilingual European/English, actress. Her family ancestry goes back to the famous painter Emil Nolde and she has inherited his natural creativity. But Emil died in abject poverty and although his paintings now fetch seven-figure sums, Brigitte's artistic skills were heavily discouraged. And would have been lost forever but for the support and encouragement of her brother. Shortly after finishing drama college, Brigitte was cast as 'Emmeline Vance' in 'Harry Potter' directed by David Yates and she has worked consistently on many high-quality projects since. In 2011 she won the award for Best Supporting Actress at the International Film Festival in Los Angeles for her role as 'Amelia Holland' in the multi-award-winning feature film 'David is Dying' directed by Stephen Lloyd Jackson. This film won 8 awards in the United States alone. The first British Independent feature film to do this. She has worked with a range of highly respected directors including Sam Mendes, Cari Fukunaga, Tim Burton and David Yates. She is an active member of the Actors Centre in London and has studied with many of the masters including the American acting coaches Jack Waltzer and Bernard Hillier. Having played the villain, Dr. Vogel in Spectre opposite Daniel Craig and Christoph Waltz, she was asked to reprise her role as Dr Vogel in No Time To Die. In 2019, she received an Award of Merit for Acting for her role as Claire Winters in the passion project Nox at the Film Festival in Atlanta/USA. In 2020, she was awarded Best Supporting Actress for the same role at the INDIE X Festival in L.A/USA. In 2021 she received a further award for Best Actress for this role at the London International Motion Pictures Awards.
